There are nations in Europe that have not been involved in a war for centuries and they are mainly agricultural nations. This fact is brought out in one of two feature films in color to be shown in Happy, Tuesday, January 30, and the showing, scheduled to start at 1:30 p. m. at the Grand Theatre in Happy, is sponsored by Markham & Sons, Happy farm implement dealer.

Rumors, But Only Rumors Regard Airplane Plant

Various rumors are being circulated regarding the location of a large airplane factory between Canyon and Amarillo.

According to rumor, representatives of this plant have made a survey of the proposed location and will be able to announce plans for construction in a few days.

So far none of these rumors have been verified, and so far as known here no representative of the plane factory has visited this area.

During World War II various rumors were started on proposed construction of big plants in this section. After the Amarillo Air Field was opened and construction started on Pantex all of these rumors died down.

There may be a big manufacturing plant on its way here, but so far these are only rumors.

Snowden Program at Branding Iron On Night February 1st

Marion Keighley Snowden has chosen a program of dances mentioned in the plays of Shakespeare for her virginals program Thursday evening, February 1, in the Branding Iron Theatre on the West Texas Campus. They are gay and alive and in many cases the ancestors of the square dances used so much today in this part of the States.

Miss Snowden first collected the materials for this lecture in the libraries and museums of England and found the music for illustration there. Her slides were made there and at the Folger and Congressional libraries in Washington, the New York library and the Antheneum in Boston.

The program deals with the various quotations to be found in the plays of Shakespeare connected with dances. These are explained with many amusing instructions on the art of dancing found in seventeenth century books. The music which is illustrated on the virginals includes such dances as: Pavans, Galliards, Jigs, Courantes, Almains' Toys Brawls Canaries, Dumps, Heys and Morris, etc. The pictures are of people dancing in halls, private rooms, out of doors and so on, and they recall a day when people lived leisurely enjoying their amusements wholeheartedly. A writer of the day says about the women: "It is a world to see, nay a hell to see how they will swing, leape and turne" (Continued on last page)

Congressman Walter Rogers Writes of Events Underway in Washington

Speaker Rayburn echoed the serious tone of the 82nd Congress as he called on all members to "do the things that make the international desperadoes and despots fear to get in our path." This session is deep in debate about taxes, finances and other urgent policies. But above all, it is concerned about armies for the United States and aid to the free non-Communist world. These are some of the searching problems confronting this session as it bends its energies to building up the nation's defensive and protective strength for survival while this country stands in the gravest peril of its history.

Congressman Rogers says quite a few business men, both big and little, have expressed opinions to him about a Federal General Sales Tax. Many are in favor of it. He would like for folks in the district to write him their ideas about it. He feels that this is a matter of vital interest to all tax payers and that they should not hesitate to express their views to their representatives and senators without delay.

The price-wage freeze is coming sooner than anticipated. Charles E. Wilson, as Director of Defense Mobilization, is in charge of the entire home-front defense program, and he is satisfied that piecemeal controls will not work.

Congressmen have been bombarded with anxious inquiries and protests against drafting eighteen year-olds. Their mail reflects the serious

Senator Johnson Is Grateful For Advice Given by Writer

Mrs. John L. Williams of Canyon wrote to Senator Lyndon Johnson regarding the Korean situation.

"I am sure you will agree that survival is our No. 1 problem today—all other issues are secondary. We must continue to exert our best efforts to see that we become militarily strong enough so as to withstand any acts of aggression," writes Senator Johnson.

"Although I do not pretend to be a military strategist, I join you in the hope that American lives may not be needlessly or carelessly sacrificed and I pledge you my wholehearted work in that direction."

Mr. Johnson wrote that he hoped to receive more advice on the critical problems confronting the nation.

What To Do? What To Do? What, Oh What Shall We Do?

Shall we continue stopping the Canyon News when it expires, or trust that Uncle Sam will not get us up on the carpet for sending out papers which have expired?

Nearly every month some one comes in and says: "Yes, we got your notice that our subscription was expiring, but we did not think that you would stop it!"

Several years ago we were forced to adopt this policy of not sending our papers which have expired. In the first place, it is only good business. Whoever heard of a grocer sending you a bill of groceries this year simply because you bought such a bill last year.

And in the second place, we have to swear to Uncle Sam that there are no delinquent subscribers. (Frankly, telling Uncle Sam something that is not true has a pretty strong penalty.)

So please, please pay up your subscription when it expires, as we have no other choice than to stop the paper before we get in bad.

Hardin-Simmons Will Meet Buffs Here on Monday

The Buffs have won two and lost two Border Conference games so far this season, having defeated the New Mexico Aggies and the University of New Mexico in home games, but were defeated by the University of Arizona and by Texas Tech at Burton gym.

So far Arizona leads the Border Conference, with a good chance of again winning the conference enpoint for the year.

Town Meeting Is Called Friday Of This Week

A Canyon Town Meeting has been called for Friday, January 26, at 7:15 p. m., in the Committee Room of the Court House to consider the critical problem of increased costs of food during the national emergency. All citizens in the region who eat are urged to attend. Others welcome.

The meeting will be conducted on an open forum basis, with Dan O'Connor of Canyon serving as chairman.

The purpose of the meeting is two-fold: first—to determine whether or not it is believed that public opinion is sufficiently strong to check locally or nationally demoralizing increases in the cost of food; second—if determined affirmatively, to record all suggestions introduced and to make special note of all suggestions approved by the majority.

The chairman will introduce the discussion by briefly citing possible dangers to the health and morale of the nation should current price trends continue. If not introduced from the floor, numerous specific proposals for action will be presented by the citizens assembled.

All citizens planning to attend are urged to think exhaustively on the subject before coming to the meeting.

The Committee Room is located at the east end of the ground floor of the Court House and is capable of accommodating at least one hundred persons.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS

We Are Passing Through a Most Critical Period in USA

According to our opinion, which is no better than any of our readers, this is the most critical period in the history of our nation.

We shall probably know within the next three or four months whether or not there will be World War III. Frankly we are worried, and worried plenty as to the prospects of war.

We have never felt that war was inevitable. But there is no sense sitting around hoping that war will not come. We must be prepared for war should war come.

We heard a speaker the other day who laid aside all of the hysteria of war and declared that there was no immediate dangers of war. Nevertheless he stood for preparation. Maybe he was right; and again he could be wrong.

As we have often said on this page, America could not whip China, and certainly could not whip Russia; and neither could either of them come over here to defeat us? Then why have a war? Unless we feel that we must police the entire world, we had better look over the field carefully and select the spots which we consider vital. Unless we do something like this we are going to die of financial strangulation.

We are certainly opposed to isolation, as such, but there are times when good judgment should be used. We are told that Italy and France will not fight Russia; so why try to defend nations which will only throw stumbling blocks in our way if we attempt to protect them?

We are told that the President wants to be another war president, and cannot be trusted to handle the financial affairs which go hand in hand with a great war. We do not have much confidence in the ability of the President, but after all he is our President, and must take the lead if the nation is to have a leader. We certainly do not adhere to the theory that Truman would purposely draw us into war for the mere purpose of being another war president. War took the lives of both Wilson and Roosevelt. Truman has sense enough to us every power within his means to avoid war.

If we can get by the next three or four months without war, we shall breathe a lot easier as to the immediate future.

Redistricting Bill Proposed But Hard Sledding Is Ahead

It begins to look as though Texas was in earnest about redistricting the state after all of these years of delay. But do not become over enthusiastic about the prospects. The legislature may not get its way about redistricting, and a commission may have to do the job should the legislature fail.

At the present time East Texas holds the balance of power. If and when redistricting bills are passed, they will favor East Texas, or the politicians from East Texas in the legislature will be content to leave this matter up to the redistricting commission. It will depend entirely on the question of the best deal that East Texas will be able to push through.

The official census has not been announced from Washington, and may not be during the present session of the legislature. The East Texas boys claim that the census will not be official until announced from Washington. Perhaps they are right about this. At least most of us here in Randall county were of that opinion until the Supreme Court upset this line of reasoning.

As the matter stands now, East Texas will be out to do all kinds of horse trading, and the extent of this trading will affect appropriations and other types of bills which West and South Texas legislators want. If the boys from East Texas can succeed in getting the better of the trades, and pass a bill favorable to that section, redistricting will stand for ten more years, regardless of the shift in population away from East Texas in favor of West and South Texas.

Under the proposed bill, Randall county is included in the proposed 95th district together with Armstrong, Brisco, Swisher, Castro, Parmer and Deaf Smith counties. In spite of the fact that this territory would be larger in area than the present six county district, it would have distinct advantages over the present setup, which includes big Amarillo. No matter who may wish to run for the legislature, or for any other office in a district which includes Amarillo, he has little chance of being elected against an Amarillo candidate.

We shall see what we shall see.

"Let's Pass a Law" Cry Is Being Heard Throughout Nation

Let's pass a law! The Legislature and Congress are both in session, so let's pass a law and get it over.

We like to see our lawmakers work, passing laws to earn their money. We insist on being regulated by law—but who will observe these laws—provided that we can get away by breaking them?

Washington has announced that voluntary price controls have failed and that now we must resort to law. Yes, and just as soon as prices are regulated by law most of us will be rushing around to the black markets to see what we can get.

Human beings are so constituted that we just naturally like to see laws passed, but very, very few folks like to observe these laws once they are passed.

So why should we pass more laws?

The function of a newspaper is to print as much news as it can and intelligently comment on its significance. Other things appear in books.

Nearly every legislator is for cutting down expenses until some of his friends see a chance to make some money out of governmental spending.

It shouldn't be necessary to declare war in order to get the people of the nation to unite in their own defense.

Our own view of the dangers that beset the nation but, after all, you might not be interested in our views.

It never occurs to some people that other people have sense enough to manage their own affairs.

In view of what's said and done, how many little boys want to grow up and become President?

We wonder if the government kept a list of the black market operators during the last war.

71½ Billions Asked, But Too Much Money For Fair Dealers

President Truman has submitted his budget to the Congress. He asks appropriations which amount to 71½ billions of dollars, the highest amount ever submitted by a president.

We are shocked at this action on the part of the president.

A week previously he stood before Congress and demanded that economy prevail, and that all spending should be subjected to military needs. He must have had his tongue in his cheek as he spoke these words. Here we have a demand for 41½ billions for military and 30 billions for all other kinds of spending. Appropriations are included which would set up all of the various phases of so-called Fair-Deal program which Congress has already sidetracked in favor of defense. Truman says that these are defense measures!

No voice has been raised in opposition to spending for military needs, but we shall hear plenty of opposition to the President's plan to set in motion all of the distasteful new socialistic frills which are today wrecking England. It seems that some of our folks think that we should copy everything which comes out of England, as ridiculous as these so-called reforms may be.

A few years ago we were shocked by a learned article by Senator Bennett Clark of Missouri in which he traced the growth of bureaus which have never been authorized by law. It seems that when small appropriations are secured for certain departments in one Congress, then each succeeding Congress adds to and multiplies the demands of these departments, regardless of their needs. This is the way that they grow year after year.

It is preposterous to think that a great nation like America cannot eventually be taxed to death. If Truman has any such idea of being a great war president, he should curb any such ambitions and be remembered in history as the president who saved a great nation by carefully guarding the treasury, rather than be remembered as the president who started the nation on its way toward bankruptcy by spending billions of dollars in a most wasteful and extravagant manner.

We are certain that Congress will trim these appropriations to the bone. If you think that appropriations can and should be trimmed, why not write to your Congressman, demanding that something be done.

General MacArthur Is Under Fire For Mistakes of the War

General MacArthur is under fire and is charged with having pulled a boner when he pushed his troops almost to the Manchurian border.

A speaker in Canyon last week stated that all of the American troops knew of the presence of the Chinese Reds in Manchuria, but it was stated so often that the Reds would not attack that they believed this story. English and French newspaper correspondents were pulled out of Korea, believing that there would be no more fighting during the winter.

It has been reported that President Truman flew to meet MacArthur to discuss war strategy, only to be told that the Chinese Reds would not fight. If this is true, MacArthur was wrong. MacArthur has been tops with the American troops up to the present time. If the charge of bad judgment can be proved, it is stated that a new high command may soon be in charge.

The clamor is increasing that we withdraw from this useless country and let the Reds have it. If we succeed in staying let it be remembered that we shall spend billions of dollars rebuilding Korea from the destruction caused by war.

Byrnes Is Better American Than He Is a Democrat

Said James F. Byrnes, when inaugurated Governor of South Carolina:

"The time has come when all Americans, not just Democrats, must choose between labels and principles."

Byrnes has served his country long and faithfully. He is dubbed a Democrat, but has always placed America above the Democratic party.

What a fine example for voters throughout the nation! Yet party labels appeals to more voters than does patriotism.

Those who feel sorry for an automobile driver, arrested for drunken driving, should feel sorry for some of the dead and injured who were hit by a man who just had a "bottle of beer."

The record breaking profits of business reveal very clearly that (1) it has been ruined by unwise legislation and (2) cannot afford to pay increased taxes without collapsing.

Maybe it might save us some money if the people of the U. S. would get rid of their fears about the future trends of domestic and international affairs.

Despite the metropolitan belief that farmers make money without working and receive vast sums from the government, there is no rush to the farms.

Our pet delight is the man who spends a dollar and thereupon determines that he is entitled to tell the owner how to run his business.

In case you do not suspect it, nearly a million Americans have been killed on our highways since the good old horse and buggy days.

Most of the bright remarks that you read about are made after somebody has mullied over the conversation for a couple of days.

The taxation necessary to support freedom throughout the world explains a lot of doubts as to the proper course for the United States.

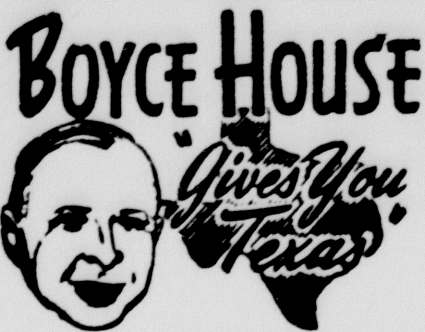

The prescription for most of the ills that beset the world is just, plain, everyday honesty.

You could end most quarrels if you could get people to define what their words mean.

No matter how little you pay you can always get something worse for less money.

Two classes of people believe in voluntary control: the naive and the predatory.

If the Russians do not plan war, they are spending a lot of money for defense.

From time to time, anecdotes have been told in this space about Big-Foot Wallace, that grand old frontiersman and colorful Texan. Several years ago, Annie A. Poor of San Antonio wrote me a letter about Big-Foot.

"He was my great uncle and would visit our home when he came to San Antonio, my mother's maiden name was Mary Jane Wallace and she was born in Gonzales County."

"Big-Foot was very palsied and it was my duty and pleasure to help steady his coffee cup."

"A hammered silver brooch, set with an amethyst, is one of my treasures, presented to me by Big-Foot on my fourteenth birthday."

"I recall in 1893 a reunion of Confederate veterans was held in Floresville, celebrating the dedication of the new courthouse. Big-Foot was there and the center of attraction. The evening's festivities started with a ball which Big-Foot and I were to open by leading the grand march."

"The merchants of Floresville decided at the eleventh hour that he should be fitted with new clothing instead of marching in his old homespun clothes and brogan shoes with brass toe tips. The result was I was standing around waiting for him. He finally arrived as the marchers swung around and we brought up the rear. As soon as the march was ended, Big-Foot sat down near the door, pulled off his new shoes and put on his brogans."

"Wild and woolly" characterized much of Fort Worth's life in the 1880's. Most celebrated of six-gun exponents was long-haired James Courtright, who could shoot equally well with either hand and was a master of the "border shift" wherein a pistol was drawn, fired, tossed in the air, caught in the other hand and firing resumed. He was city marshal; then as head of a detective agency, he convinced saloon and gambling hall proprietors that they needed his protection—except Luke Short, owner of the White Elephant Saloon, who had done quite a little effective shooting in Arizona and Kansas boom towns."

The two had a short conversation and both went for their guns. A bullet from Short's weapon, out first, hit Courtright's right thumb; he tossed up the gun for the "shift" but, while it was in the air, Short fired three more times and Courtright had the longest funeral procession Fort Worth had ever seen.

One Stroke of Pen Could Make British King Richest Man

LONDON, Eng.—The British kings could be the richest men in the world with one stroke of the pen—if they so desired. And all because the Socialist government is nationalizing more of his revenue.

This curious situation causes constitutional lawyers to have nightmares whenever they think about it.

For one thing, if the Windsors ever tire of being kings and queens and want out, it would require a final decision on whether George III and subsequent monarchs up to Queen Victoria turned over their estates to the crown for an annual revenue permanently or only as long as Britain had a continuous royal family.

If it isn't a permanent deal, that stroke of the pen from George VI or his descendants would boom the Windsors from the just-enough-money-to-scraps-by class to the richer-than-Croesus category. It probably will never happen but no one can stop lawyers from speculating.

In 1760 George III—he lost the American colonies—made a deal for 89,000 pounds ($239,200) a year in return for giving over to the crown certain lands. As succeeding rulers turned over more land, the annual guaranteed income grew until George VI now gets 410,000 pounds ($1,148,000) a year.

The crown lands comprise some of the juiciest real estate in Britain today. There are hundreds of thousands of acres of mineral-rich land and priceless chunks of Piccadilly Circus (London's Times Square) and its finest shopping street, Regent street.

The income from these lands is close to 2,000,000 pounds a year ($5,300,000) which is a tidy profit on the deal for the people.

The Windsors, theoretically, would get all that and infinitely more besides. There is the foreshore of the whole British coast, for example, all the land between high and low tide. Buckingham palace and its art treasures, which include five tons of gold plate, a conservative 6,000,000 combination, ($16,800,000) and several other great castles.

All this could be had with a stroke of the pen—so the experts believe.

Dog Retrieves $6,300 Loot In Jewelry Store Robbery

FRENCH LICK, Ind.—Police had searched everywhere for $6,300 worth of watches and jewelry stolen from a local jewelry store but were unable to find it.

Then a beagle hound came out of a woods near the French Lick hotel golf course and dropped a handkerchief-wrapped package at the feet of his mistress, Mrs. Paul Brace. The package contained the loot.

Officers said the theft had been admitted by a hotel waiter, but they had never been able to find the loot.

Snaflu Almost Snares Young Recruit for Armed Forces

FORT MEADE, Md.—Henderson Dorsey, 17, found himself almost in the army by mistake. His self-made snaflu came about like this: He was touring Fort Holabird in Baltimore with some other students and they stayed overnight before heading for Fort Meade to continue the tour.

Dorsey overslept. But when he explained his plight to the M.P.'s they loaded him on a bus—the bus also being loaded with brand new draftees.

At Fort Meade, Dorsey was shepherded right along with the new soldiers and into the induction center.

When the sergeant began to give the draftees their first lecture on army life, Dorsey figured he's better speak up.

It was all a mistake, he told the sergeant. He'd just got into the wrong pew—or rather, the wrong bus. The sergeant, skeptical, went to the major.

The major said yep, all a mistake. Dorsey kept his civilian clothes. The army kept its uniform.

Social Birds Weave Own Apartments, Curator Says

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Dr. Herbert Friedmann, curator of birds of the U. S. national museum, reports birds build apartment houses.

One species builds nests as big as fair sized human dwellings—as much as 25 feet long, 15 feet wide and 10 feet high.

This is the social weaverbird of South Africa. An "apartment house", woven out of sticks and straws, sometimes over a period of several years, may contain as many as 5 individual nests.

Such a mammoth structure is the community product of a flock consisting of from 75 to 80 pairs.

"The bird," Dr. Friedmann says, "is about as sociable as any bird could possibly be. It is always found in flocks, feeds in flocks, and breeds in large, many apartmented compound nests. Instead of each pair of birds having its own breeding territory, each flock seems to have a definite territory. The boundaries of these territories are seldom crossed by individuals of other flocks."

Jawaharlal Nehru, India's Prime Minister, may have to wait a long time before he gets the 2 billion tons of U. S. grain that he wants as a gift. This country's officials are not impressed by India's attitude toward aggression of China in Korea or by the degree of co-operation in building defenses.

Alan Valentine, the country's Economic Stabilizer, is being told that he may need more political ties if he is to stand up under the cross fire that is developing over the issue of wage and price controls. Mr. Valentine is a non-politician in a job that may become highly political.

Atom Reactor Plants Safest Places to Work

RICHLAND, Wash.—The Hanford atomic reactor plants are the safest working places in the world, according to records.

Unprotected, a man could not safely come within a quarter of a mile of such nuclear chain reaction as takes place in a Hanford pile.

Yet no worker at Hanford has gotten in an entire year as much radioactivity as having your chest X-rayed. Thick concrete walls furnish most of the protection but there are jobs in which workers walk right into the rays.

For instance, men with periscopes, magnifying lenses and powerful lights detected a piece of apparatus out of order. A remote control crane lifted it over a wall to an area free from rays. But the piece itself was emitting powerful gamma rays.

Safety Fence Put Up

A crew taped paper on the floor where the piece was to rest to save the floor from getting radioactive. The distance the rays would travel from the apparatus was calculated, and a safety fence set up at the limits of danger.

The piece had to be repaired. First a crew trained on an identical piece of apparatus, to save time when they came to the "hot" apparatus.

After training, the crewmen stripped. Those with cuts or scratches on hands and arms were rejected. The others dressed in two pairs of white coveralls, two pair of gloves, rubber and leather, cloth hats fastened down over hair, and rubbers over shoes. They wore masks furnishing their own oxygen for breathing.

At the fence the men found their tools already laid out at points nearest each tool's probable need. All the tools were long handled. Parts of the crew stepped inside the fence, into the direct rays, which then bathed their bodies. New men on this kind of job say they feel the rays pricking their skin. That seems to be nerves, because experienced men never feel anything.

Timekeeper Keeps Watch

A timekeeper watched them, checking how much of the rays each worker got. Presently he signaled one to come out. That man left the job, because he had received all the rays permissible on one day. One of the reserves took his place. So it went until the job was done.

By that time every man's clothes were presumed to be covered with radioactive atoms. The crew went to a room where they stripped these clothes, washed and had their skin tested for radioactivity.

Some had radioactivity on their hands, the parts which had been closest to the "hot" apparatus. These had to scrub several times with special green soap and other chemicals.

The amount of radioactivity permitted these workers is less than the natural radioactivity which everyone gets from the air at one mile altitude. Dust and air might get radioactive in the Hanford plants, and for this robot monitors detect the contamination long before it is dangerous. The robots blow whistles, ring bells and flash lights in warning.

Czech Paper Blames Atom For Shortage of Onions

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia—Prace, the trade-union newspaper, reports many people in Czechoslovakia are buying heaps of onions to protect themselves against atomic radiation. Others are stocking up on vinegar to guard against gas attacks.

Prace blamed such citizens, "insuring themselves against all eventualities", for current shortages of those two commodities. A bad onion harvest and insufficient vinegar production has nothing to do with the current shortage, the newspaper said.

The newspaper said a woman spread the rumor that the smell of onions helped counteract the effect of radiation after an atomic bomb explosion.

"And so, people bought a quintal (220 pounds) of onions and put them under the bed."

Another woman, Prace reported, gossiped that in case of a gas attack a handkerchief dipped in vinegar was a good thing to have.

"And so these people have their larders full of vinegar bottles".

Other newspapers have reported an onion shortage.

8-Year-Old Wields Wrench, Knocks Out Home Prowler

SEATTLE, Wash.—An eight-year-old boy has captured his bandit.

Robert Dixon was alone in his home at 4:30 a.m. when he heard someone attempting to force the front door.

When this failed, the man broke a front window and started to climb in. Robert was waiting just inside, armed with a monkey wrench and a kitchen knife.

Wham! He let the prowler have it over the head twice, and, for good measure, he took a slice at the man's hand with the knife.

The prowler collapsed. A few minutes later the boy's parents returned.

The prowler was still unconscious when police arrived.

Astonishing Results Produced by New Arthritis Treatment

NEW YORK, N. Y.—A new blood plasma treatment for arthritis victims is reported to be producing astonishing results.

A group of patients crippled with rheumatoid arthritis for several years have been restored to normal buoyant life following the administration of plasma taken from mothers 48 hours after childbirth, it was reported.

The group, seven women and one man, told a tale of suffering for years, many of them spent in wheel chairs or lying helpless in bed. Then they demonstrated their recovery by a series of calisthenics, including rope jumping.

The plasma method, which in many respects yields results even more striking than those obtained by cortisone and ACTH, was originated by Dr. Louis W. Granier, associate physician in charge of the arthritis clinic at the Queens general hospital, Jamaica, N. Y.

The most remarkable effect of the plasma, Dr. Granier reported, is its apparent long lasting effect. Whereas the effect of cortisone and ACTH wears off generally in a few days or weeks, the effect of plasma has so far appeared to last for as long as 24 months without recurrence of the disease.

The plasma also appears to have other important advantages over cortisone and ACTH. One is the availability of the plasma in large amounts as compared with the two hormones, which are still relatively scarce—and therefore expensive. The other advantage lies in the fact that the patient does not have to be hospitalized.

Another advantage, is the complete absence of any kind of side effects, such as sometimes result from the prolonged use of cortisone and ACTH.

One-Man Strike Leaves Town in Timeless State

ROME, Italy—The town of San Vito al Torre in northeastern Italy doesn't know what time it is—all because of one man.

He is Ferdinando Miani, 70, sexton and church clock winder, who went on strike for a pay increase.

The town's clock on top of the belfry is stuck at 2:45. Laborers sleep late in the morning, husbands arrive home late for dinner. All this for Ferdinando's strike. Explaining why he asks a pay increase, Ferdinando said: "How can the mayor expect that a man of my age and skill should climb 250 steps daily for $1.10 a year?"

Dead Python Vindicates Worker Who 'Saw Snakes'

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO, Calif.—A number of San Francisco street cleaners still have the shakes.

Recently a couple of cleaners tripped over a big, fat, twenty-foot python at the city dump. It was dead, sears and blisters indicating it had perished from burns received in a recent grass fire near the dump.

Where the reptile had come from was not established. But after its surprised finders, Joe Diaz and Adolph Soldani, had turned it over to the fire department, they got the shakes. They realized it had been in the vicinity for at least two months and perhaps longer.

About two months before Joe Mortesini, working at the dump, came staggering up to fellow employees to gasp:

"A snake, a big green snake, biggest green snake I ever seen, he chased me and I threw rocks at him and he kept chasing me."

Diaz and Soldani and other workmen remembered that Mortesini had quit his job after being kidded by other workers. That gave the gang working on the dump the shakes.

City employees recalled also that a half dozen dogs had disappeared recently near the dump. This might explain the sleek appearance of the snake.

Electronic Brain to Help Develop Guided A-Missiles

PRINCETON, N. J.—A $1,400,000 electronic brain designed to help develop guided missiles such as a rocket-borne atom bomb has been unveiled by the navy.

It is the largest and most accurate electronic computer ever built to evaluate the performance of guided missiles and to aid in the air protection of American cities.

Officials at the R.C.A. laboratories, who built the computer for the navy, said it is expected to "save many millions of dollars in the design of guided missiles and also solve many riddles encountered in the air defense of our cities."

$1,500 Venice Lace Cover Adorns a Holiday Table

NEW YORK—What was likely the most elaborate of the many table settings exhibited in New York stores during the Thanksgiving season was in Lord & Taylor's linen shop.

The cloth, ten feet long and fashioned of point de Venice lace, was on a table set for thirty-six diners. Originally made for the United States Embassy in China, the cover, with four dozen matching napkins, was offered for sale at $1,500.

Football Players Have Wild Ride On Runaway Bus

SALIDA, Cal.—There have been a great many wild rides in this history of the world—all the way from Paul Revere to Lady Godiva—but one of the most exciting was taken by 33 football players recently.

The players were on a bus driven by Jerry Tobin, 44, driver for Western State college of Gunnison, Col. The ride lasted for 17 minutes around near perpendicular mountain cliffs at a 110 miles an hour clip. Tobin was still shaking as he told about the ride.

"We had just started down Monarch pass when I noticed my air pressure had dropped from 115 to 30 pounds and I didn't have any brakes.

Emergency Fails

"Joe Thomas, Western State coach, tried to kick the gear shift back into second after it snapped into neutral, but he broke it off at the floor. Then we didn't have anything.

"We kept rolling and gaining speed and I kept pumping my brakes to try to get up some pressure, but we couldn't."

The perspiring driver pulled on the emergency hand brake, but that was "like trying to stop it with a toothpick."

"My big concern was a railroad track at the bottom of the pass that usually is blocked on Saturday by ore trains snaking up the mountain," he said.

"I yelled at the guys to start shifting when the bus came to a curve. I told them to shift to the left at a left turn, and to the right at a right turn. They did, but at every curve the bus was swaying so much the fenders were rubbing the tires.

Going 110 Miles An Hour

"When we came to the railroad track, there was nothing on it. I looked at the speedometer. It was registering 110 miles an hour.

"Once I heard something whiz past my head. Later, one of the players said it was one of those sexy pocket books he had been reading, but threw it away because he didn't want to be found dead with a book like that."

Tobin said the players appealed to him to smash the bus into the side of a mountain, but he refused because he was going too fast and such a move would have killed most of the passengers.

Tobin managed to bring the bus to a safe halt at Salida.

"But just before that I met two cars on the road," he said. "I guess I was praying when I managed to slip between them. One went off on the shoulder, thank God!"

After the bus was repaired at a Salida garage, the team went on to Canon City, Col., and won over Adams State College, 35 to 14.

New Underwater Camera Needs No Surface Help

LAKE PLACID, N. Y.—Development of the first completely mobile underwater motion picture camera that is entirely independent of surface assistance, has been announced by the navy.

The camera is operated by a diver-photographer, equipped with an "aqua-lung", which is a self-contained diving unit.

The photographer, with swim fins on his feet, is able to swim with the camera in any direction and to depths of about 200 feet.

The navy reported the camera had external controls for the lens diaphragm, focus and start-stop switch. It weighs 107 pounds in air and can be adjusted to have positive, negative, or neutral buoyancy underwater. It can be released to rise freely to the surface.

Only $70,000 Remains Of Large Overell Estate

It has been three years since she was acquitted of killing her parents in a yacht explosion. At that time the estate was valued at $282,391.18. Included in items reducing the estate's value are: $63,000 for trial-attorneys' fees; $19,140 for her support the past three years; $71,399 for state and U. S. taxes; $9,367 for estate-attorney fees, and $10,000 to the executors.

Boy, 12, Is Given $1,000 For Being Kind to Old Man

MIAMI, Fla.—Because he was kind to an old and despondent man, Sammy Yampolsky, 12, is $1,000 richer.

A Russian immigrant, Herman Bush, 62, left Sammy $1,000 from the estate valued "in excess of $5,000". Bush died of an overdose of sleeping pills. He left a note directing that none of his relatives be notified and that no funeral services be held. He said that Sammy had been kind to him.

Sammy's father, Joseph, a salesman, had been ill and unemployed for some time. The boy said that he would give the money to his father.

Teenager Gets Appetite Back; Thanks Hadacol

HADACOL Supplies Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron Which Her System Lacked.

According to Sara Loraine Beck, Box 253, Coker, Alabama, when a person is only 15 years old and feels terrible, can't eat or sleep the way they should, it's mighty bad. That is the way Loraine says she used to feel, but that was, of course, before she started taking HADACOL. Loraine found that taking HADACOL helped her system overcome deficiencies in Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron, which HADACOL contains.

Here is Loraine Beck's own statement: "I was run-down, sick and skinny, and weighed only 90 pounds before I used HADACOL. I would not eat because I had no appetite. Now I weigh 123 pounds and have an appetite. I feel a lot better. I have been taking HADACOL 10 months and am still taking it. I am 15 years old. HADACOL has done me lots of good."

provides $10,000 free indemnity for those serving in the Armed Forces. The bill is retroactive to June 27, 1950. It provides insurance, without cost, in the amount of $10,000 for each person in the Armed Services. It is in effect from the time of induction into active service until ninety days after leaving service. If a person is injured while in the service so that he becomes uninsurable at normal rates, he may obtain a policy under the National Service Life Insurance Act. Indemnity is paid in monthly installments of $92.90 over a ten-year period. Creditors can not attach it, and it is exempt from taxation. The Comptroller General stated that had this program been in effect during the period 1940-1949, the cost to the Government would have $587,000,000 less. Congressman Rogers, on a recent Mutual Newsreel Broadcast said "This legislation is a major step toward the needed economy in administrative costs, and the curtailing of bureaucracy."

There is much interest in the Panhandle as to how the district can help in the defense program. Mr. Rogers has been receiving many letters, telegrams and telephone calls from builders, jobbers and manufacturers in the district who are ready to participate in the construction of Amarillo Air Base and other proposed installations in the Panhandle. One of his first moves was to register a demand with the Army Corps of Engineers that contracts be let direct to builders on the ground, in all cases where possible, and that builders on the ground be given first opportunity to qualify for the major construction projects. In the meantime, those persons seeking construction contracts should contact the office of the Army Corps of Engineers, at 2600 Memorial Drive, Tulsa, Oklahoma, until otherwise advised.

Since funds have been appropriated for the Amarillo field, other cities in the district are busy getting former training fields re-activated. Congressman Rogers has been submitting briefs on behalf of these cities to authorities in Washington. He is expecting a visit from a Pampa delegation on behalf of the Pampa field. He has received excellent commitments of the good citizens of Childress offering their facilities and offering to cooperate fully with all Government activities in re-activating the Childress field. Many of the other counties in the district have conveyed their expressed wishes to be of whatever service they can in the mobilization program. One of the former training sites, Dalhart, has already sent a committee to Washington in behalf of the re-opening of its air base. Mayor Schubart, Floyd Richards and S. E. Brown, of Dalhart, were recent visitors here. They were given the assistance of Mr. Rogers' office and that of Senator Lyndon Johnson in making appointments with Air Force officials.

Mr. Rogers at long last found a house in this over-crowded city. Mrs. Rogers is at present in Pampa attending to unfinished business there before returning to Washington. They were the recipients of several nice courtesies during the opening week of this 82nd session. The office is now in full swing and the employees are working overtime to keep all matters current. The Atomic Energy Commission has been very cooperative in trying to work out a program for the Panhandle of Texas. The sentiment of the House of Representatives was expressed with the passage of a resolution calling for Red China to be branded an aggressor. This resolution was spearheaded by Democratic Majority Leader John McCormack and he was joined by Republican Leader Joe Martin. One Republican congressman sought to have the resolution re-committed for further study, but this motion failed. This is only a fore-runner of the activity that will be seen in the present congress to solve the international problems that now confront our country. The people are entitled to and can look for action on the congressional front.

Wanted Names of Men Who Enlist in Branches of Service

The Canyon News would like to have a list of men who have enlisted in the various branches of service.

Selective Service headquarters for Randall county are in Hereford. The News picked up one or two lists of men being called from the Hereford Branch, only to be assured by the clerk over at Hereford that we were all wet and that proper lists would be furnished in the future. Since that time we have never received a single list of men being called, either for physical or induction. We note that The Brand still carries these lists.

Please call The News, or write to us, giving the names of your friends or members of your family who have enlisted from Randall county.

OUR DEMOCRACY by MatA FRESH SLATE—

AT THE END OF THE OLD YEAR, IT IS AN ANCIENT AND HONORED CUSTOM IN AMERICA TO CAST UP ACCOUNTS AND TAKE STOCK OF WHERE WE STAND—AND TO START THE NEW YEAR WITH A FRESH SLATE.

OF COURSE WE CAN'T ALL, AS INDIVIDUALS, COMPLETELY BALANCE OUR ACCOUNTS—BUT WE CAN START WITH A FRESH SLATE TO WORK OUT BETTER, BRAVER PLANS FOR OUR FUTURE—TO PROVIDE GREATER SECURITY THROUGH LIFE INSURANCE AND SAVINGS FOR OUR FAMILIES—TO GAIN FOR OURSELVES GREATER OPPORTUNITIES AND SATISFACTIONS IN THE NEW YEAR.

Increased Phone Rates Unjustified States Reader

To the Canyon News:

A few people have expressed themselves with regard to a proposed change of rate for our telephone service in Canyon. This is more on the same subject:

(1) Over a long period of years, I have found the service of the telephone company employees in Canyon as adequate as their number and our facilities would allow, and have marveled at the patience and courtesy which has been theirs even when conditions were very difficult. Canyon is to be congratulated upon the quality of the people who staff the telephone office.

(2) To the user who pays the bill, it is not evident that an advance in rates is necessary. The price of the American Bell Telephone stock on the market and the declared dividends do not indicate that the earnings of the company are too low. Instead, the few facts which one can find would seem to indicate that American Bell Telephone Company is doing very well with rates as they are.

(3) Papers state that an advance of 50% has been made in the rates at Pampa. This seems outrageous, and it is to be hoped that there will be sufficiently widespread objection that such an advance cannot take place in Canyon. However, one's opinions should be formed on the basis of facts, and as mentioned above, not many facts are available to the ordinary telephone user. It may be that an advance can be justified, but certainly not 50%.

WARREN'S

Texas Printer Will Ask to Print Money

"If the present trend continues," said a Houston printing executive last week, "I am going to apply for a defense subcontract to print United States currency."

He was joking, of course. The high-speed presses the government owns can grind out money faster than the other branches of the government can spend it.

It is inevitable that the harsh necessities of defense and/or war will require the government to spend money at a rate hitherto unparalleled in world history. But on the other hand the world has never before been in as sad a fix as now. Thoughtful Americans have no quarrel with the astronomical military expenditures which must be made. We have no other choice.

Yet when we are called upon to pay the price of freedom, we have a right to scrutinize the items for which vouchers are drawn.

In the electrifying name of national defense the President's budget message proposes to draw one of those vouchers in favor of what is popularly known as the Brannan plan and another in favor of what is popularly known as socialized medicine.

Are these really necessary? Or are we just kidding ourselves when we believe every bit of the energy, resource and integrity of the United States must be marshalled for the final showdown between communism and democracy?

The soldiers in Korea have long since come to grip with the realities of their profession. The time is long past for the politicians who send these soldiers into the firing line to come to grip with the realities of theirs.

There is no reality in left-handed politics when the fate of the world hangs in the balance. There is only disaster.

NEW SUBMARINE

The Navy has revealed that it is working on a new type of underwater craft that would be "a true submarine," in that it could stay submerged indefinitely. It "conceivably" could do 26 knots under water and 30 on the surface.

500,000 tourists give Britain her most successful year.

Medical Phase of Defense Needed in All Parts of Texas

It is hoped that we may achieve orderly thinking and make concrete suggestions for use by local and state committees in planning the medical phase of civil defense and disaster relief in the very near future, said Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer and State Medical Defense Director.

No community can prepare itself to provide these additional health services that will be essential for civilians subjected to disaster, without a great deal of forethought, prolonged training and development of systematic performances, drills, tests, etc. When the average community prepares itself for disaster, the effort of each citizen and every profession must be fitted into a coordinated system.

There is no easy way to prepare for disaster, it is all hard work. There are two opinions as to local disaster planning. One maintains that no local planning should be done until the central agency prescribes a uniform pattern for each locality. Such a regimented approach would result in a speed realization of the desired total readiness. Certain elements of local plans would depend upon such a system if mutual support between communities are to be achieved with a maximum of economy and efficiency. Such a system is the only one likely to survive national disaster.

A second group maintains that each community should proceed immediately with its own preparations for meeting disaster. Such a plan would not interfere with a national program. Each team can lay the necessary ground work in plans and at the same time, improve its own and others' readiness to meet any problems that may require community participation. Above all, much time and effort can be saved because such planning will be required with or without a universal national pattern.

INSURANCE DIVIDEND

First payments of the new National Service Life Insurance policy dividends will be delayed until March, according to the Veterans Administration. The dividends will be smaller than those paid last year, which amounted to $2,800,000,000. The reason is that the first dividends covered an eight-year period. The present dividend payment will cover the three-year, 1948-50 period.

IT DOES

There isn't much to see in a small town—but what you hear makes up for it.

WIDE OPEN

Psychologist says one trouble these days is that so many people want to be different. The way's wide open for anyone who wants to work hard, save money, and drive slower than the speed limit.

Dream House Is Moved 1,200 Miles by Pair

NEWPORT NEWS, Va.—Houses are difficult to find these days, especially dream houses. A Vermont man and his wife knew this and as a result moved their house some 1,200 miles.

Bryon White and his wife built their Vermont home themselves, lovingly adding each new gadget and labor saving device. When the time came for them to move to Virginia they decided they wouldn't leave it.

Through half a dozen states, up hills, across ferries, down slippery wet pavement they drove, pulling their house behind them.

Sorely tired by fire, breakdowns, blowouts and vigilant policemen, they never gave up. After all, how could they abandon 14,200 pounds of house.

Altogether, with detours, they towed the house 1,200 miles.

Six Weeks Journey
But six weeks after the hazardous journey started, the house is set among a grove of evergreens. Its picture windows look out on rolling grass and gardens. Its winding driveway leads to the garage they have built at the rear of the much traveled, modernistic home.

White, an electronics engineer and former assistant professor at the University of Vermont, was just finishing up his house on university property when he took a job in Newport News with an electronics manufacturing concern.

The Whites had not overlooked the possibility that they might have to move their house when they planned it. The structure was built in the form of a T with the living room the T's crossbar. They built the living room so that by using hinges it could be folded up no wider than the T's perpendicular.

They had also used hardwood plywood—not yet on the home builders' market—and aluminum screws instead of nails. This made for lightness.

Trip a Nightmare
When they hit the road for Virginia, the home, set on a specially made trailer, was 35 feet long, eight feet wide and 11½ feet high.

But if the house was a dream, the trip was a nightmare. They had to get permits from the states they planned to drive through. They had to avoid underpasses and some bridges. They had to write ahead to arrange for tows in some places.

They spent $250 on tires on the trip. Each time one blew out it ripped itself to pieces under the weight of the house.

Bear mountain in New York never will be forgotten by the Whites. Almost to the crest of the long, high hill their overheated motor burst into flame. When they got the fire out the crankcase oil was a chocolate brown from the heat.

Now that the house is set up again and liveable, some of the terrors of the trip seem humorous to the Whites. But they're certain of one thing, never again!

Long-Lost Century Clock Being Sought in Colorado

DENVER, Col.—Colorado officials have been presented with the mystery of the missing clock.

The timepiece was built by J. W. Hile, a Kansas clockmaker, and displayed in the Kansas-Colorado building at the Centennial Exposition at Philadelphia in 1876.

It was among the new-fangled gadgets, supposed to run for 100 years. Its power was supplied by a heavy weight attached to cords and set to drop 76 inches at a rate of three quarters of an inch a year.

Doane Eaton, Doraville, Me., wrote Governor Walter Johnson of Colorado that he found a reference to the clock in an old family record. Did the governor know what became of the clock? Was it still on time?

The governor didn't know. He passed the timepiece inquiry to Mrs. Agnes Wright Spring, acting state historian. She sent it along to Orville R. Hagans, Denver horologist, whose extensive treatises on time-keeping gave the price of the 100-year-old clock at $1,000, but no references as to where it might be.

The search goes on. Hagans passed the problem to fellow horologists in the country.

Bomb Threat Increases Sale of Land in Utah

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah—Land prices throughout the country have boomed since the current world crisis. The latest boom is in Utah.

Real estate men from all parts of Utah agree that talk of this-or-that large city being a good target for atom bombs seems to be driving a lot of city folks into the rural real estate market.

Land prices in Utah have not boomed as high as in other parts of the nation but salesmen report an increasing reluctance of farmers to part with their land at present prices.

A real estate dealer in Richfield reported that one out of every two buyers of farms in Sevier Valley is a Californian. He said many move in while others put tenants on the land "just to have a little land in the mountains."

Most girls marry a struggling young man, struggling to stay single.

Woman Wills U. S. Bonds and Her Ashes To Red Army Chief

NEW YORK—Miss Agnes Smedley, the Missouri born newspaper-woman and well-known writer on China, bequeathed her ashes and her residuary estate to Gen. Chu Teh, commander of Red China's armies.

Miss Smedley, who won a retraction of charges that she spied for Russia, died last May 6 at the age of 56 in Oxford, England.

She willed her bank accounts and cash to her niece, Mary Smedley. Chu Teh was named heir to U. S. government bonds and royalties and "anything else of value included in my estate."

The will was dated April 27, 1949. It directed that her personal possessions, such as clothes, typewriter, and furnishings, be sent to China for relief or other purposes.

The will also ordered her body cremated and directed that the ashes "be shipped to China for Gen. Chu Teh, commander in chief of the peoples' liberation army or his heirs, and there be laid to rest at any place designated by General Chu or his heirs."

It was in February, 1949, that a United States army report named Miss Smedley as a Soviet spy in Shanghai. Miss Smedley called this a "despicable lie" and the army soon retracted the charge, saying it had no proof.

She served as a correspondent with the Chinese armies fighting the Japanese and her magazine and newspaper articles on that conflict were widely read. She wrote five books, including an autobiography, "Daughter of the Earth."

Mounties Are Mechanized, Now Have Only 153 Horses

OTTAWA, Canada—The Royal Canadian Mounted Police have only 153 horses, it was disclosed recently.

In its annual report, the R.C.M.P. revealed the force of 3,489 uniformed members is gradually going mechanized, with 17 fewer horses than the year before. It added an airplane to its equipment and is seeking a helicopter.

But its members in the vast northland patrolled 539,000 miles, 46,860 of them by dog sled last year.

Activities included everything from recovering a lost wallet to getting its man—43,000 convictions.

TV Show Is Sparkler On 27,000-Volt Hookup

SOUTH BEND, Ind.—Ernest Kolesiak's television antenna fell across a 27,000-volt power line with these results:

The plumbing began throwing off sparks and pipes melted around the kitchen sink.

Mrs. Kolesiak, peeling potatoes, found her spectacles speckled with molten metal.

Balls of fire bounced up and down on the roof with thunderous explosions.

The high voltage burned out the television set and blew off one of the knobs before the Indiana and Michigan electric company shut off the power.

The telephone burned out. A glove lying in the yard burst into flames.

The house was scorched in three places where wires passed through the walls.

Mr. Kolesiak, who was trying to tighten the antenna guy wires, was only slightly burned.

The family dog ran off. He was found, but refused to go home.

Dutch Jungle Girl Refuses Mother's Appeal to Return

SINGAPORE—The "Jungle girl", 13-year-old Bertha Hertogh, has refused to return to Holland with her mother.

Clinging to her foster mother, Che Aminah, a Malayan who reared her after the Japanese fell upon the Hertoghs' home in Java, the girl defiantly told her mother: "I don't love you and never would and I'll never go with you."

The girl has married a Malayan school teacher. A court recently gave custody of the child to Che Aminah, her former nurse.

Mrs. Hertogh called at Bertha's home and saw her for the first time in eight years. It was a tearful scene in which her daughter told her: "You left me and gave me to Aminah. Now all you want is to start trouble. Of course you are my mother. But I am a Moslem. I'll never leave my husband or go to Holland with you."

Mrs. Hertogh left weeping.

Housewife in Second Floor Apartment Injured by Auto

BOSTON, Mass.—It would seem that a person sitting in his own second floor apartment is no longer safe from automobiles.

A 57 year old Boston housewife was sitting in her apartment when John Gintalis, 61, was struck by a car as he was crossing a street. He suffered a fractured left leg.

His shoe was wrenched loose by the impact. It was hurled 25 feet and through a window in the apartment of Mrs. Catherine Heenan.

The shoe hit her on the head. She suffered scalp cuts.

WHAT IS TO BE DONE?

Webster defines a polite person as one "marked with good breeding or tact." Courtesy means "expression of respect."

Was it "an expression of respect" when not a single male student or otherwise, offered to help one of the ladies up after her fall Thursday in the lunchroom?

In my opinion, it did not speak well for CHS males. Their thoughtless behavior was astounding. There were little boys, big boys, and grown men in the cafeteria. Everyone of them turned around and watched. Some even laughed.

After this lady had struggled to her feet, a woman went to her aid.

Is courtesy dead? What has happened to the used-to-be chivalrous days of Canyon High?

What is to be done?

Senior Vignette

This senior girl is crowned with blonde hair and blue eyes. She claims skating as her hobby and pastime. Her favorite subject is bookkeeping, and her mother, Mrs. J. E. Chain, is her ideal person. What she likes best to eat is fried chicken. Who is she? None other than June Chain.

His hair is brown and during boxing season his eyes are black! Yes, it's Larry Prater. His pastime is boxing and his pet peeve is a right hook. (Wonder why?) Larry's ambition is to be a farmer, and Mr. T. L. Devin is his ideal person.

Subject Mid-term Examinations

The students of CHS have been "Aiken" this past week because of the new law requiring 175 days of school.

Everyone was looking forward to a long weekend at midterm. However, due to this law, we did not have that extra day. Please students, don't feel like you've been cheated because you haven't. The examinations weren't canceled.

All examinations were taken at the regular class periods. The first and fourth period classes took their tests on Tuesday, January 16. On Wednesday, January 17, the second and fifth periods took their tests, and Thursday, January 18, the third and sixth periods took. During these days all other classes met as usual.

Now that examinations are over, Mr. Gilmer and Mr. Aiken have this last word for the students: "Good night, dear students, good night. Rest well!!!"

March of Dimes Begins Jan. 15

Polio is a disease that yearly attacks 35 out of every 100,000 people in Texas. Next January 15, marks the beginning of the 1951 March of Dimes. The March of Dimes gives the students and citizens of Texas a chance of combat polio, one of the most dreaded diseases.

The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis was founded for the purpose of finding a cure for infantile paralysis. Last year Texas had to have help from this foundation. The March of Dimes in Texas did not provide enough money for Texas alone.

This year when the March of Dimes begins, everybody must do his best to see that Texas cares for its own who have infantile paralysis. Give to a worthy cause and give generously.

Remember the dates January 15-31, the 1951 March of Dimes.

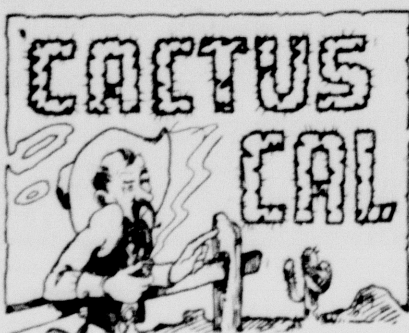

Any Other Suggestions?

A suggested menu for the cafeteria: Cate, baked catfish garnished with plenty of catsup; chunked catfish; broiled catfish, a la Cat Whiskers; and catnip tea with lemon.

Just to be categorically correct, the above would be especially nice to serve Catalans at any catny affair. For entertainment the guests could ride in catboats and attend catbird races.

Every teacher at CHS was present every day last week; there were no tardies either morning or noon. Even a better record than the freshmen had.

Reproduction of some "letters" between two Canyon High faculty members which were recently discovered: Dear Miss Pain: They were here. James Hurry Garson, Esq. Dear Mr. Hurry: They arrived. Respectfully, A. Agony.

What could this mean? Who are they?

This older generation is just too much for Cal.

Billy Carl Morton really is glad that semester tests are over. Now he does not have to use so much paper. Paper is so expensive, you know.

Did you know that ten girls in the senior class are engaged, one is married, and seven are now going steady?

Didja, huh? Didja?

Ole Cal's eyes are about done for. He just cannot resist looking at all the bright, loud-colored shirts and socks around here. Guess he will have to get him some.

The boys of CHS have dubbed "Speedy" Owens as "the woman's man."

There are only 342 more days until Christmas.

Mr. Miller has the prettiest new blue suit. He really looks sharp in it. He also has a bright red tie. It's even redder than Don McDonald's hair. Cal suggested that sometime soon he should wear his blue suit and his red tie.

Wooten and Reeves Take Trips

On Thursday, January 18, Supt. E. A. Wooten left for Austin where he was called to a meeting of the Texas State Teachers Association Executive Committee. The purpose of this meeting was to decide on the Texas city in which the association will hold its 1951 convention. The 1950 convention was held in San Antonio. From Austin, Mr. Wooten went to Waco and Gonzales to interview teachers for the 1951-52 school term.

Mr. E. R. Reeves, principal of the W. T. elementary school, has been appointed member of the Advisory Council for the School Plant and Maintenance Section of the Texas Education Agency. He went to Austin, Tuesday, January 23, where a meeting was held to develop a plan of procedure and policies on new building construction and maintenance problems confronting Texas Public Schools.

Mind Your Manners Say F. H. A.'ers

"Mind your manners!" was the theme of the skits which spotlighted the Future Homemakers of America meeting Thursday night, January 25.

Pantomimes, skits, and playlets were given in which table etiquette and good manners were stressed. "It's the Way You Do It" was the first on the program, with Anita Ruthardt as Betty, Dorothy McReynolds as Sue, Teddy Howell as June, and a succession of chorus girls played by a number of F. H. A. members. "Invited Out" followed, with Nelda Ruthardt as Ruth, Bette McGee as Mary, Marcia Bynum as Jean, and Dyanne Hand as Sally. "A Tableau of Good and Bad Manners" was given next. This pantomime was read by Teddie Bynum.

A business meeting followed. A Prince Charming was elected and his identity will be announced at the Sweetheart Banquet, an annual highlight in school affairs, which will be given February 9. Plans for the banquet were made during the business meeting.

McDougal, Carter Co-Captains in '50

Barbara McDougal, a senior and a three year letterman in basketball and a two year letterman in volleyball, and Lorayne Carter, also a senior with four letters in basketball and three in volleyball, were elected by the basketball team to lead the Eaglettes as co-captains during this season.

Barbara was on the all tournament team at Tulia in '50 and second all district in '50. Lorayne was second all district in '49.

The team has won eight out of ten games losing to Dalhart and Claude.

Eagles Trip Stratford 60-44

Friday night, Jan. 19, in the Canyon gym, the Eagles defeated the Stratford Elks 60-44 in a game that was a thriller all the way. At the end of the first quarter the score was tied 15-15. Ray Burrus, rebound artist for the Eagles, gathered five fouls and left the court right before the half. The Eagles managed to lead at the half 30-26. Beginning the second half without Burrus the Eagles turned to the accurate shooting of Garland Butler to lead them to victory. Butler led the scoring with 18 points; Russell followed with 12 points and Morton with 11 points.

In the "B" game Canyon whipped the Stratford "B" team 61-44. Bob Ratliff gathered 17 points to lead the scoring, next was Jim Marshall with 16 points.

Friday, Jan. 26, the Eagles travel to Sudan where they play a return game.

Eagles Add Two More Wins

The Canyon Eagles gained sweet revenge on the Sudan Hornets for the 13-12 loss the Eagles suffered from the Hornets in football. Leading only 21-13 at the half, the Eagles, led by Bob Busted with 13 points the second half, romped to an easy victory. Final score Canyon 50, Sudan 26. Leading the scoring for Canyon was Burrus with 17 points, followed by Busted with 13 points.

In the "B" game Sudan slipped by the Canyon boys 26-21. Sudan led at the half 11-10. Dawdy paced the losers with 8 points.

Thursday night, Jan. 18, the Eagles journeyed to White Deer where they barely managed to win by a score of 43-40. The Eagles had previously defeated the White Deer team in the Canyon gym by a wide margin. Burrus netted 18 points to lead the scoring for Canyon. Busted and Morton scored 9 and 8 points respectively.

The Canyon "B" Team smashed the White Deer team 52-26. Wimberly led the scoring with 15 points, followed by Ratliff with 11 points.

Juniors Win One Lose One

Monday afternoon, Jan. 8, the Canyon Jr. High team came from behind to win their first conference game downing the Elizabeth Nixon team 37-30 in the Canyon Gym. The Canyon team was behind the greater part of the game, following 19-17 at the half. Gradually gaining points the Jrs. swept to victory. Ed Money led the winners with 11 points, followed by Ruthart with 10 points.

Thursday, Jan. 11, the Canyon Jrs. traveled to Pampa where they met bitter defeat at the hands of the Reapers 39-14. Canyon was still in the ball game at the half time being only 8 points behind. The half time score was Pampa 19, Canyon 11. Canyon could net only 3 points in the second half. Boling led the scoring for Canyon with 6 points.

Boys Attend Fat Stock Show

Thirteen Future Farmers will journey to Fort Worth, Friday, 12, to see one of the largest Hereford shows in the United States. The class has been studying cattle judging and it will get some practical experience by judging cattle and comparing their champions with experts' champions. They will also see a large swine exhibit.

The boys, accompanied by Mr. T. L. Devin, plan to visit the Armour Packing Company and see a cow enter as a live animal and come out ready for market. They also plan to see how cattle are handled in a stockyard.

As a sidelight the Future Farmers will see a rodeo.

In a class meeting Thursday, January 18, at noon the freshmen made final arrangements for the bowling party which was held Friday afternoon from 4 until 6:30 in the local bowling alley.

The room mothers served cold drinks. Each student paid for renting his own shoes, but other expenses came out of class funds. The newly-elected co-sponsor, Mr. Cecil Briggs, and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Johnson chaperoned the group.

Notes

EIGHTH HOT SHOTS

R. A. Burgess and Larry Hungate saved the day for the eighth graders when each made a free shot to down River Road, 29-28.

Hungate made a free throw in the final minutes of the game to tie the score 28-28. Then Burgess followed with another, making the tally 29-28. Hungate was high-point man with 8 points.

This makes the eighth graders' fifth straight win, with no defeats. Other wins were over Price College, Tulia, and Hereford. Wednesday, January 17, they will go to Tulia for a return game with that team.

PULLEY, LEVER, WHEEL . . .

The 5-W social studies class, under the direction of Mrs. Audrey Jones, last week presented to 5-J a program illustrating the use of the six basic machines.

Among the tools used on the program were nut-crackers, hammers, and pliers.

A basketball tournament between teams in the fifth and sixth grades has been the chief interest of these two classes during the past week.

Eaglettes Take Second at Tulia

The Canyon Eaglettes showed their ability to play basketball by winning second place at the Tulia Tournament and placing three girls on the all-tournament team.

The Eaglettes won their initial victory in the tournament over Tulia, Wednesday night. The score read 33 to 9.

Friday night, they returned to Tulia and met a tough Claude six. The Eaglettes won this game 34 to 31.

Claude led the Eaglettes at the end of the first quarter, 12 to 9. The Eaglettes came back in the second quarter, scoring eight points, while Claude was held to three. Thus making the half-time score, Canyon 17, Claude 15. The two point lead enlivened the Eaglettes who, in the following quarters, scored 17 more points, while Claude followed scoring 16 more. The final score was 34 to 31. Pat Ford took honors as high point forward with 14 points and Tysene Cox netted 9.

The Eaglettes met Dalhart in the finals Saturday night, with Dalhart winning this game 27 to 20.

The Canyon squad scored 6 points in the first quarter, with Dalhart netting 7. The Eaglettes picked up the lead in the second quarter scoring 5 more points, and Dalhart made only one bucket, making the half-time score, Canyon 11, Dalhart 9. The third quarter ended in a deadlock, 15 to 15. During the fourth quarter, the lead went from team to team, when in the last minutes Dalhart pulled the game out of the fire, winning 27 to 20. Ford was again high-point with 12 points, Cox followed with 6, and Glanton netted 2 points.

Pat Ford, Barbara Glanton, and Barbara McDougal were honored on the all-tournament team, which consisted of twelve players. Each girl on the team was given a miniature gold basketball. The second place trophy won by the Eaglettes will be presented to the school and placed in the trophy case.

Five girls from Amarillo were down Wednesday afternoon looking over the school. Misses Nina Prince, Dolores Blasingame, Betty Watson, Iva Dell White, and Joan White finished their tests for Wednesday and decided to come down and look over CHS. They were thinking about transferring.

GOLD OUTFLOW

The outflow of gold from the United States during 1950 amounted to $1,721,038,389—more than in any year on record. Statistics showed that the outflow reduced the nation's gold stocks to $22,705,631,452. Experts are not alarmed about the outflow, however, pointing out that whenever gold moves into another country, it serves to strengthen the currency of that nation.

Wright, Cross and Womack Drafted by Professional Teams

Three members of the championship Buffalo football team have been drafted by professional football teams for next year, following their graduation in June.

Charles (Wire) Wright of Canyon has been drafted by the Chicago Bears; Bill Cross will go to the Chicago Cards; while Bruce Womack has been selected as a tackle on the Detroit Lions club.

All three have brilliant records with the Buffaloes. The Wright-Cross combination gained 2,400 yards during the season, not counting 188 yards gained in the Sun Bowl. The previous best record was the Blanchard-Davis combination of the Army team last year which accounted for 1,661 yards.

Warwick's

Woman of Year Award Received By Perle Mesta

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Editors of U. S. newspapers voted Perle Mesta, Oklahoma born "hostess with the mostest" who is now U. S. minister to Luxembourg, as 1950 "woman of the year."

Mrs. Mesta, famed as Washington's greatest party giver at the time of her appointment in 1949, has surprised critics by settling down to a serious job in her diplomatic post and winning the apparent respect and affection of the Luxembourgers.

The season's smash musical comedy hit on Broadway concerns the doings of a lady ambassador and thus focuses the attention of the public on Mrs. Mesta. The show's star, Ethel Merman, was named the year's outstanding actress of the legitimate state.

Last year's "woman of the year" was Mary Martin, star of the Broadway success, "South Pacific."

Actress Is Named

Other outstanding women of the year as voted by the editors included Gloria Swanson as the most outstanding movie actress for her sensational comeback in the motion picture, "Sunset Boulevard," which won critical acclaim throughout the nation.

Pearl S. Buck, first American woman to win the Nobel prize, was named outstanding woman in the field of literature for 1950. Her moving article, "The Child Who Never Grew," written about her own daughter, caused nationwide comment and was reprinted in book form. A new novel will be published in April.

Dr. Irene Corey Diller of the institute for cancer research, Philadelphia, was named by the poll as outstanding woman scientist of the year. She discovered tiny fungi present in all cancers. The fungi are of the common variety found in soil, food, plants and trees. Her discovery was hailed as one of the most startling of the century in cancer research.

In the field of sports, Gussie Moran, the "lace pants tennis player," was named woman of the year. At present she is on a cross-country professional tennis tour for which she reportedly is receiving $75,000.

Mary Margaret McBride was named outstanding woman in radio and Vivien Kellems of Westport, Conn., was named tops among women in business.

Smith Tops in Politics

Margaret Chase Smith, Republican senator from Maine, who was the first woman to win a seat in the U. S. senate on her own merits, was once again named the outstanding woman in politics. She has raised her voice frequently in the senate this year and has made her presence felt in all sessions.

In the field of education, the outstanding woman of 1950 is Milliecent Carey McIntosh, dean of Barnard college, N. Y., and mother of five children. Mrs. McIntosh is notable among college deans because she had managed to raise a large, happy, healthy family while charting a top flight career.

Tops in news interest in the field of music for the year is Margaret Truman, the president's daughter, continuing her concert career amid wide fanfare.

Much Less Coddling Please, Youngsters Advise Adults

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The mid-century White House conference on children and youth held recently in Washington got something of a shock.

Three teenage high school pupils and a college student put their case bluntly to adult delegates of the conference. They demanded less coddling and more responsibility.

"Our aims are simple," said Arnold M. Pins, Columbia university student and chairman of the youth advisory council. "We want to work for responsible citizenship and individual happiness. We want the opportunity to share the total concerns of our society and to begin now to share them as full citizens."

Other youths attending the conference emphasized that young people need the "practical experience" of working with their elders. The adults were also told that parents know about the problems of youth but "won't take time out" to do something about them.

Your Loss, My Game

The recent meeting in New York between Ernest Bevin and Andrei Vishinsky found Bevin considerably thinner than usual and Vishinsky somewhat heavier, the story goes "How thin you've got!" Vishinsky affably exclaimed. "Twelve pounds," Bevin replied. "But you—you're fatter." "Yes," the Russian replied, "but don't get the idea that I'm a cannibal and have profited by your loss, because I weigh fifteen pounds more."

"Fifteen!" mused Bevin. "That's just my loss plus the three pounds Stafford Cripps dropped these last few weeks."

UNDERSTATEMENT

In a hotly contested local election in Iowa, the Republican candidate ostentatiously refused to sling mud at his opponent. "Such tactics are beneath me," he proclaimed. "I will only say that he sailed from New York to Southampton and back last summer aboard the America and never washed once—which strikes me as the perfect example of a dirty double-crosser."

Joke With Teeth

A couple of Scotsmen were walking along the road together and one was jingling something in his pocket. His pal asked "Jock, you must have plenty of money in ther." "Oh, no," said Jock, "that's my wife's false teeth . . . there's too much eating between meals in our house."

Apt Definition

A news butch on a train came through selling Western sandwiches; a man bought one and there was nothing between the two slices of bread. He asked the butch about it who replied that his sandwiches had two hunks of bread and wide open space, which was Western.

OUT OF BOUNDS

The restaurant patron had been waiting for service at his table for fifteen minutes. Noticing a waiter standing nearby with folded arms, he thought he'd pass some time away with conversation. "Say," he inquired, "How'd the Yankees make out in the double-header today?" "Sorry," replied the waiter haughtily, "this isn't my table."

Discount

You know, Joe may be broke but he'd make a wonderful husband. He's so tall and romantic. Oh, I like tall men, too. I always said I'd marry a 6 footer, even if he didn't have a cent.

No Time for Comedy

Mother was absent from the dinner-table; so Dorothy, aged seven, sat in her chair and pretended to take her place. Father was watching the child's solemn assumption of matronly airs with ill-concealed glee when her brother challenged her position with the remark: "So you're mother tonight? Well, if you're mother, tell me—how much is six times nine?"

Calmly and without hesitation, Dorothy retorted: "I'm busy; ask your father!"

Come Back Later

A pink elephant, a green rat and a polka-dotted snake walked into a cocktail bar.

"You're a little early, boys," said the bartender. "He ain't here yet."

Woman Customer (in bank): "I would like to make a loan." Bank Official: "You'll have to see the loan arranger." Woman: "Who?" Official: "The loan arranger, the loan arranger." Woman: "Oh, you mean the one who says, 'Hi-He Silver?'"

Completely Gone

Mrs. Tucker was boasting about the wholehearted devotion of her husband.

"I never worry about him paying attention to other women," she exclaimed. "he's crazy about me." "That's wonderful, dear," rejoined her friend, Mrs. Arnold; "but aren't you afraid he has lucid intervals?"

SHORT STORY

Sweet, Easy Money

By Richard H. Wilkinson

WHEN a man's flat on his face—financially speaking, I mean—he'll take any kind of a job. That's my excuse for playing nursemaid to Julia Upton. Bodyguard—that's what Moe Langdon, her producer called me. You see, there'd been a kidnapping scare and Julia was right at the top of the heap that year—a tempting morsel for abductors, and Moe figured she needed looking after. Also, he figured the publicity wouldn't do her any harm.

"After all," he grinned, "you were all-American fullback, and when the public reads that you're riding herd over little Julia—"

"A swell friend you are!" I snapped. "My pal!" I stopped. He was still grinning, the grin that meant it was hopeless for me to argue. "How much will you pay?"

"Two hundred bucks a week—and what sweet, easy money."

He was right, it was sweet, easy money—providing a man didn't have any pride. I earned every dime of that 200 bucks. I wasn't used to being ordered around by a little chit of a redhead.

"Tomorrow morning," she'd say, "we're going horseback riding. Be at the house at 9." Or: "Tonight the Keanes are giving a party."

I guess my attitude must have shown how I felt. At any rate, Julia began taking a delight in putting me on the spot—making me pose for pictures, making me attend afternoon teas where I'd be the only man present—stuff like that.

There came a time three weeks later when Julia wanted to go for a drive in the country. We drove toward Santa Barbara, were half way there when it flashed across my mind that she was due at the studio for a rehearsal at 3 o'clock, and at this rate she wouldn't be there.

I told her she'd better turn around and head back. She said she was tired of rehearsals and said how did I expect to make her if she didn't want to go?

"Like this," I said, and switched off the ignition and pulled up the brake. She was furious. She wouldn't get out of the driver's seat. So I lifted her up in my arms, and it was such a swell opportunity I kissed her.

She swore at me—real cuss words—and because I knew this would end my sweet, easy money job I kissed her again, then plumped her down in the seat and got behind the wheel.

I DIDN'T bother to contact Moe. Instead I moved from my one room home into an apartment, and the next day set out to find myself a job.

I had expected the papers would be full of my discharge from Julia's employ, but they weren't. Not a word.

And this got me to thinking that maybe she wasn't quite as bad as I thought. As a matter of fact, I got to thinking other things too—mostly about Julia.

Two weeks later Moe Langdon called me up.

"Listen, you dub, Julia's been kidnapped and it's your fault. They want $50,000. It's got to be delivered to a rendezvous . . ."

"Tomorrow morning," she'd say, "we're going horseback riding. Be at the house at 9 o'clock."

There was a guy waiting at the top of the pass when I got there.

He grinned at me when I gave him the dough. "Where's Julia?" I said. He jerked a thumb over his shoulder. "Two miles back, in a cabin. Follow the trail."

I ran all the way to the cabin. Julia was inside, bound and gagged. I didn't know the extent of my relief, and apparently Julia didn't know hers.

"I could have had you fired from your old job," she said, "just the way I made Moe Langdon hire you for my bodyguard. But I didn't want to. I wanted you to—to satiate your old pride."

"Wait a minute," I said. "How about this kidnapping business?"

"It was your own fault," she said. "You—you were so stubborn. You wouldn't call me up. I had to do something."

"Then it was a gag?"

She didn't say anything, just stared at me. Well, I thought, what's the use? I'm destined to look after this kid the rest of my life, and I might as well like it.

Austin: Adherence to a policy of strict economy will effect a large number of the measures that the Legislature is going to consider.

For example, Senator Rogers Kelley of Edinburg proposes a constitutional amendment that would permit the state to advertise its advantages to vacationists and to industry.

Opposition to an appropriation for that purpose would certainly arise on the grounds that such an expenditure now would not conform to a policy of austerity.

The amendment, however, carries no appropriation, but merely the authority to spend state money for advertising. If the amendment passed, the Legislature could withhold any appropriation until such time as the world situation changed and it appeared that state advertising would bring the desired returns in tourist dollars and factory payrolls.

In his inaugural address, Governor Allan Shivers underlined the need for saving money. He said:

"The prospect for the American people is one of austerity and self-sacrifice. At no time in the history of our great state and nation has it been more imperative to put first things first—to place the welfare of our whole country above the demands of individuals and groups."

In his speech to the Legislature, the governor said that in view of the menace of another world war, state problems become secondary

Some money will have to be spent for civil defense—which can be added to the list of items that will receive high priority in the Legislature, along with redistricting, state financing, and legislation affecting truck operations.

What the state will do with respect to civil defense depends upon appropriations from the federal government, an interpretation of the recent congressional Civil Defense Act, and the result of studies which have already been made in Texas.

Re-districting is a difficult problem, not because of money, but because it will eliminate the jobs of some senators and representatives in areas where population has not kept up with fast-growing parts of the state.

As one example, cities have been increasing in number of inhabitants at the expense of rural areas. Thus the cities will get more representation in the Legislature, and some members from the sparsely-populated areas will have to be cut off the list.

On the truck-railroad front, three bills were introduced to tighten truck regulations.

Two of these bills were put into the Senate hopper by Senator George Parkhouse of Dallas. The other was by W. A. (Son) Shofner, who is from Temple, a railroad town.

FOOD PRICES

Food prices in retail stores reached almost to the all-time peak of July, 1948, in the first half of December. The Bureau of Labor Statistics reported a rise of 1.2 per cent in retail food prices between November 28 and December 15, which is 216.3 per cent of the 1935-39 average and within 0.2 per cent of the all-time record of 216.8. The new index was 3.2 per cent above the previous month and was up 9.6 per cent over a year ago.

DEFENSE AGENCY

By May 1, the new Defense Administration, under the direction of Wm. H. Harrison, will be converted into a central industry-control agency, modeled after the War Production Board of World War II. A new Federal Building, with 1,000,000 square feet of floor space, formerly designated for the General Accounting Office, is expected to be used for Harrison's headquarters and its expected staff of several thousand persons.

STRIKES

While the number of strikes in 1950 was greater than in 1949, the total idleness resulting was less, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics. In addition, the number of workers involved was less than those affected by walk-outs in 1949. In 1950, there were 4,700 strikes compared to 3,606 in 1949, resulting in 38,500,000 man days lost compared with 50,500,000 in 1949.

Man May Be Only 50,000 Years Old, Scientist Reports

CHICAGO—A question somewhat like the one about which came first the egg or the chicken has long bothered scientists. They have wanted to know which came first in human evolution: man's body structure or his brain?

A University of Chicago anthropologist has come up with a theory, based on laboratory tests with animals, that the brain came last, a mere 50,000 years ago.

Some investigators assume that man has been on earth around 1,000,000 years. Sherwood L. Washburn, associate professor of physical anthropology, has a different timetable:

Trunk and arms—10,000,000 years old.

Leg structure (upright posture)—1,000,000 years.

Skull structure and brain—50,000 years.

Washburn has been able to modify drastically the skull form of adult rats by cutting certain muscles in the heads of day-old rats. This surgery parallels evolutionary steps.

He said his work indicated that changes in the bony structure of mammals might not have required the many slow evolutionary steps previously assumed.

He said only a relatively few changes in genes—the factors which control heredity—possibly were required to bring the enlarged skull capacity man needs for his brain.

The evidence checks with other recent findings that much of earth's past is not so distant as once supposed.

An atomic calendar developed at the university which determines age by the amount of radioactive carbon left in matter tested has fixed the end of the last ice age at 12,000 years ago instead of the 25,000 once assumed.

Also, recent studies of the fluoride content in fossil bones in England have indicated that fossil man is much younger than once thought.

Mascot Wakes Fraternity, But Perishes in Blaze

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Terry, a fraternity house mascot, gave the 30 occupants of the house the first warning of fire and enabled them to escape. But the small dog remained in his master's third-floor room and was suffocated.

The dog's coughing roused his owner, Melvin Chrisman, 24, a George Washington University graduate. He gave the fire alarm while his roommate aroused the other occupants.

The dog has been credited with saving the lives of the men.

Rumanian Doctor Flayed; He Used American Drugs

VIENNA, Austria — Because a Bucharest physician recently prescribed American drugs for two of his patients he has become a snake-in-the-grass to the Communists.

Among other things, the doctor was described as "a submissive servant of the imperialists," a "tool of inveterate reactionaries," "a man without professional honor" and "a worshiper of American specialities."

All this because he prescribed 4,000 tablets of glutamic acid and three bottles of aureomycin made by an American firm for a father and his son.

The official publication of the Rumanian ministry of health identified the offender as Dr. Stefan M. Radulescu and devoted more than 600 words to an editorial pointing out his "errors".

After asking rhetorically where Dr. Radulescu heard about these American "wonder drugs," the editorial said that they aren't necessary in the Rumanian peoples democracy.

U.S. Tank Crew Has Four Faiths Under One Hatch

KOREA—A Pershing tank named United Nations goes into battle with the sergeant of the crew shouting "Allah". That's because William C. Koontz, Wilcox, Neb., is a Moslem—probably the only Moslem in the marine corps. "It's a good religion," he said. "A fighting man's religion."

Koontz holds the navy cross for heroism on Saipan in World War II. Cpl. James R. Rader, Akron, O., the tank gunner, is Jewish. A Catholic, Cpl. Andrew Navarro, San Jose, Calif., is the gun loader. The others in the crew are Cpl. Donald R. Husted of Springfield, O., a Methodist, and Sgt. Thomas N. Wiley, Sand Springs, Okla., a Presbyterian.

"We never argue religion," said Koontz.

Red Farmers Must Furnish Wool Quota Without Sheep

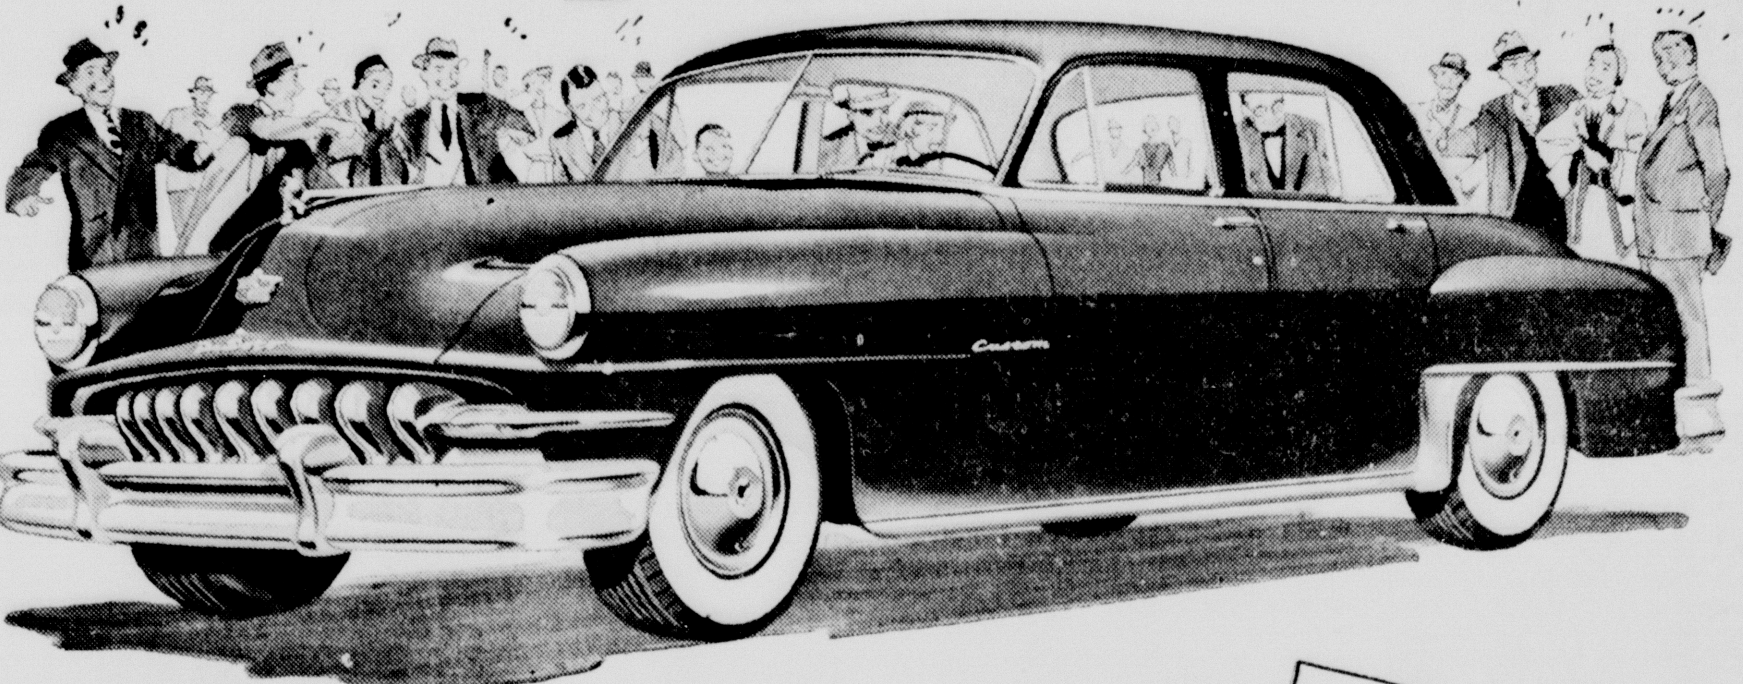

BERLIN, Germany—The farmers in the Mecklenburg, a Soviet zone state, were angry and bewildered.

They were ordered by the government to deliver individual quotas of wool regardless of whether they had sheep to produce it.

Sheepless farmers were told to buy their quotas from others.

Sheep owners said they had no surplus wool because they needed it for clothing. As wool growers, they had not received a clothing
